

Brisbane Crime & Criminals

Sunday, 28 May 2023

Queensland Police Headquarters, Conference Room, Ground Floor, 200 Roma St

1230 - 1300	Registration & Bookshop
1300 - 1305	Welcome and Introduction
1305 - 1340	Jennifer Harrison - "Moreton Bay penal settlement - a nursery of vice: recoverable culprits or desperate demons?"
1340 - 1345	Questions
1345 - 1420	Lisa Jones - "An Ingenious Disguise"
1420 - 1425	Questions
1425 - 1500	Afternoon Tea
1500 - 1535	Jack Sim - "Bloody Brisbane"
1535 - 1540	Questions

Parking: Parking spots around QPS Headquarters are difficult to find. You can try May or Makerston Streets or North Quay for paid parking spots. Public transport is the best option as Roma Street railway station and bus station are directly across the road.

ENQUIRIES: Lisa Jones 0408 883 251	BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL	RSVP 25 May 2023
BRISBANE CRIME & CRIMINALS SEMINAR 28 May 2023		Admission: Free

Booking : Please include the names of all attendees.

By Email: brisbanehistoryevents@gmail Online: Eventbrite 'Brisbane Crime & Criminals'

By Post: Use the tear off strip, PO Box 2118, Brookside Centre, Qld 4053.

Number attending:
Name(s) attending:
		Phone:
Address:

Brisbane Crime & Criminals Speakers

Jennifer Harrison has an interest in the worldwide input of the 'Coming of the Strangers' to nineteenth century Queensland. In today's seminar she will trace the lives and criminal origins of some of the convicts who were transported to the Moreton Bay Penal Settlement.

Jack Sim - Over its near 200 year history Brisbane has had many dreadful and shocking crimes which have become part of the city's story. In this talk Crime Tours Australia, author and publisher Jack Sim will focus on several of these which impacted on society. These cases have become part of the collective memory of the River City and various legends and untruths have also grown up around them, which will also be explored.

Lisa Jones enjoys speaking about the history of the Queensland Police and is particularly fascinated with stories about interesting crimes and sometimes unusual criminal methods. She has been Curator of the Queensland Police Museum, for the last 25 years.